This event is FREE for Hamilton County residents
If you live outside Hamilton County and would like to attend, email osda2011@gmail.com.

This training is designed to provide you and your ally tools to advocate for yourself, connect with others, and gain leadership skills.

Topics include:

▶ Speaking up about employment (a job) and other things important to you
▶ Knowing yourself and standing up for yourself
▶ Communicating (effective and non-effective ways)
▶ Solving Problems (individually and as a group)
▶ Rights and responsibilities
▶ Tools to help you find a job
▶ Learn to start or strengthen a local network group
▶ Plan next steps for training and leading others
▶ Self determination

Training includes:

▶ Lodging, food, and training materials for both the participant and the ally providing support
▶ Hotel room for two nights for both participant and ally (double occupancy - single room occupancy will be arranged, if requested, for an additional fee of half of the room cost)
▶ Breakfast, lunch, and snacks on days two and three - dinner each evening is "on your own"
▶ Access to all presentation slides, handouts, and other information used during the training
▶ 18 hours of continuing education credit for both the participant and the ally
